Notwithstanding the foregoing, each subcontract that Supplier is entering into shall contain a provision that, in the event the Contract is terminated, would allow assignment of such subcontract to Purchaser (but only for those subcontracts regarding which Purchaser accepts the assignment thereof by notifying the subcontractor in writing) or to another contractor that replaces Supplier as designated by Purchaser.

(b) Any waiver by the Purchase of any provision of this Purchase order will not be valid and enforceable unless it is in writing and signed by an authorized signatory of the Purchase and a waiver by either party of any provision of this Contract will not be construed as a waiver of any succeeding breach thereof or any other provision of this Contract. (c) If any provision of this Contract is for any reason declared invalid, illegal or unenforceable, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability will not affect any other provision of this Contract. In such event, the parties will promptly substitute for such provision an enforceable provision that preserves the original intentions of the parties to the maximum extent possible in accordance with applicable law. (d) Without Purchaser's prior written consent, Supplier will not disclose to any third party the fact that Supplier has contracted to provide Products to or perform Services for Purchaser nor disclose any details connected with this Contract. (e) Notice shall be given in writing and signed by an authorized signatory of the sender and shall be delivered to the individuals named on the front of this Contract by overnight courier. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Supplier shall keep confidential all information about the customers of Purchaser and such customers' Projects and other business activities. Neither party may disclose, use, or copy such information, except as required for the performance of this Contract or as may be required by law, and each shall use commercially reasonable efforts to prevent any unauthorized disclosure, use, or copying. These obligations shall not apply to information that (a) is or becomes publicly known (other than through a breach of this provision), (b) was already known by a party prior to receiving it, or (c) is acquired without obligation of confidentiality from a third party who is not under an obligation of confidentiality and is not misappropriating or infringing the non-disclosing party's Intellectual Property rights. Nothing in this Section 15 shall prohibit either party from disclosing to relevant governmental authorities the information that is legally required, including in connection with such party's application for permits, or making any disclosure otherwise required by law; provided that the disclosing party will (a) provide prior notice to the non-disclosing party about disclosing party's intention to disclose to governmental authorities or other third parties the non-disclosing party's Intellectual Property, to allow the non-disclosing party a reasonable opportunity to protect such information from disclosure, and (b) use commercially reasonable efforts to protect from disclosure to governmental authorities or other third parties the non-disclosing party's Intellectual Property. To the greatest extent possible, any Work Product and all intellectual property created by Supplier in the course of, or in connection with, Supplier's work hereunder shall belong solely to Purchaser, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing statement shall be deemed to be a "work made for hire" (as defined in the United States Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C.A. §101 et seq., as amended) and owned exclusively by Purchaser. Supplier hereby unconditionally and irrevocably transfers and assigns to the Purchaser all right, title and interest in or to any Work Product and all intellectual property created by Supplier in the course of, or in connection with, Supplier's work hereunder. Upon Purchaser's request, Supplier shall execute and deliver such instruments of assignment and transfer as Purchaser may request to give full force and effect to Purchaser's ownership rights in such intellectual property and Work Product. (b) Supplier becomes insolvent or the subject of proceedings under any law relating to bankruptcy or the relief of debtors or admits in writing about its inability to pay its debts as they become due.

The termination of this Contract shall not discharge or otherwise affect the Parties' rights and obligations that survive termination. In addition, Supplier shall both have the right to compensation due until the date of termination and be responsible for any reasonable expenses or costs incurred by Purchaser as a result of a default by Supplier.

19. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the Singapore, without giving effect to conflict of laws principles thereunder.
